REPORTING SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE

Clarksville-Montgomery County School System (CMCSS) recognizes that state law specifies that every citizen has a duty to report suspected brutality, abuse, neglect, or child sexual abuse. In accordance with Tennessee Code TCA 37-1-403(b), the district has developed its own policy and procedures for reporting suspected cases of abuse or neglect.

The district requires any employee who suspects abuse that is not severe physical or sexual abuse to report that suspicion directly to the Department of Children’s Services (DCS) AND to the district’s Chief Human Resources Officer or designee. Any employee who suspects severe physical or sexual abuse is required to report such suspicions directly to the district’s Chief Human Resources Officer or designee who will notify the appropriate law enforcement agency.

In all cases where the suspected abuser is a CMCSS employee, volunteer, or contracted services provider such as an employee of Kelly Educational Staffing, district employees will report their suspicions directly to the Chief Human Resources Officer or designee who will notify the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Persons making a report of child sexual abuse or reporting harm or physical abuse of a child are presumed to be acting in good faith and are immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that may be brought in a state court action. Such person’s identity will remain confidential as set forth in the school system’s applicable policies and procedures unless otherwise required by law or court order. Their name will not be released to any person other than DCS and school administrators on a need to know basis as required by state law and that may be needed to “protect the health and safety of the student or other individuals.”
