

Clarksville-Montgomery County Board of Education Point of Pride Award

The Point of Pride is awarded by the Clarksville-Montgomery County Board of Education for outstanding and exceptional achievement or contributions to the betterment of public education in this community. The School Board members recognize individuals and groups which support the Board's mission to educate and empower students to reach their potential. The Board of Education initiated this program in 2003.

Eligibility and General Criteria: CMCSS students and employees are eligible for the award and will be recognized based on one or more of the following criteria: achieved a state-level recognition; made extraordinary effort in a special endeavor; or performed exceptionally in an unusually difficult or emergency situation. Criteria for community individuals, organizations and groups is based upon significant contribution or support of the School Board's mission.

Nominations for the Point of Pride Award will be reviewed by the Senior Leadership Team.
