JROTC Eligibility

To be eligible for enrollment and continuance as a member of the JROTC unit, each Cadet/student must meet the following requirements:

- Education: Student has provided evidence of enrollment in a State-approved Home School Program

- Grade: The student must be taking a high school equivalent course load.
- Academic Standing: The student must maintain an acceptable standard of academic achievement and standing as required by JROTC and the school.
- Conduct and character: Cadets must maintain an acceptable standard of conduct. Those in leadership positions are expected to demonstrate high personal standards to set the example. All Cadets should be honest and self-reliant; they should have a sense of personal and social responsibility in performing unit and other academic assignments. They must exhibit self-discipline and respect for constituted authority, through observance of laws, rules, and regulations; by prompt and regular attendance for instruction time and in their general demeanor. Cadets who fail to meet these standards will be removed from leadership positions. All Cadets will be screened at the end of each semester and will only be readmitted to JROTC with the approval of the Senior Army instructor.
- Physical ability: The student must be able to participate in the JROTC physical education program in the school. Students enrolled in an adaptive physical education program may participate.
- JROTC Uniform: The student must agree to wear the Army JROTC uniform one school day per week. For SY20-21, uniform issue and wear will be amended and directed at the individual school level.
