FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there a financial obligation to attending Middle College?

Through the utilization of grants and scholarships, Middle College students will not be required to pay tuition nor will they incur the expense of textbooks. Students will be apprised regarding any fees which may be assessed.

Is transportation provided?

Students who attend Middle College will be responsible for their own dependable transportation to and from the college campus. CMCSS will not provide school bus transportation. However, as a student at Austin Peay, students will be able to ride the city's transit system free of charge with an issued bus pass. In addition, students who drive to school will be granted access to park in the designated student parking lots after completing the vehicle registration process.

Do I attend my home school as well?

Once you enroll in Middle College, you are no longer considered a student at your previous school. You are viewed as a visitor when you are on another campus.

If I start the program as a junior, will I have to reapply for my senior year?

Upon being admitted to Middle College, you will remain until you graduate, as long as you meet academic and discipline standards.

Will I be able to receive scholarships to pay for my college after Middle College?

Yes! Taking and being successful in college classes as a high school student is a great way to stand apart from other applicants and show that you have the maturity and ability to be successful in college. Our recent graduates averaged about $60,000 per student in scholarship awards.

What high school will be listed on my diploma?

Since Middle College is an accredited high school and students who attend Middle College have transferred from another accredited high school, all diplomas will be conferred by the Middle College at Austin Peay State University.

Who teaches the classes?

High School classes are taught by high school teachers and only include high school students. College courses are taught by college professors and will have both high school and college students in them. Students will attend both high school classes and college courses.

Where do we eat lunch?

The University Center has a food court, cafeteria, and coffee shop. There are also snack bars on campus. Students can also bring lunch or eat off campus. However, students who qualify for free/reduced lunch and those wishing to utilize their CMCSS cafeteria account may eat lunch at Burt Elementary, which is located near our building on campus.
